JEROME ASKS
REMOVAL OF
JUDGE BOLTE

District Attorney in Charges Filed Before the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court Declares the Judge Fraudulently Administered an Estate.

NEGLECTS DUTIES, HE SAYS.

It Is Alleged in the Complaint that Judge Bolte "Feliciously Appropriated Money of the Estate of Clinton Koch," for Services He Never Performed.

District Attorney Jerome, through his assistant, Mr. Cans, filed a petition with the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court, to-day, for the removal from office of Judge Herman Bolte, of the Second District Municipal Court. Mr. Jerome charges neglect of duty in the administration of his office, and also the fraudulent administration of an estate for which he was executor.

In making the charges and asking for Judge Bolte's removal, the District Attorney acts in the capacity of a private citizen and member of the bar.

His petition states in relation to the charges of fraudulent administration of the estate of the late Clinton Koch:

A Charge of Fraud.

"Mr. Jerome charges and believes that the said Herman Bolte unlawfully and fraudulently appropriated money of the estate of Clinton Koch to his own private use while acting as one of the executors of the said estate; that he unlawfully paid large sums of money belonging to said estate to his son, Herman A. Bolte, for alleged legal services that were never performed either by the said son or by any other person; that he credited himself with paying large sums of money from said estate for forged notes made payable to the order of fictitious persons; that the sums of money were in truth and in fact never paid out, but were appropriated by himself to his own use, all of which was fraud against the said estate.

This matter, the petition states, is under investigation by Surrogate Abram C.
Thomas, of this county.

Neglects Duties, He Says.

The other charges contained in the petition are that Judge Bolte did not devise his whole time to the duties of executor, and does not continue the sessions of his court as long as the public interests demand. Mr. Jerome declares that though Judge Bolte's calendar is congested he does not go on the bench until late in the morning and adjourns it early in the afternoon.

The petition also states that the Judge frequently absents himself from court for days at a time, citing a number of days in the months of March, April, May and June. A further charge is that Judge Bolte allows men to practise in his court who have not been admitted to the bar.

NO LICENSE FOR
WRESTLING MATCH.

Bummers Issued for Sulzer, but Magistrate Crane Decides that Park Man Is Within Law.

Ernest Sulzer, proprietor of the Harlem River Park, was before Magistrate Crane in Harlem Court, to-day, summoned by Acting Inspector Albertson.
When the case was called Inspector Albertson said:

"Your Honor, Mr. Sulzer has been conducting wrestling matches at his Harlem River Park, but has not procured a license to hold them. There has been a disorder, but Inspector Crane desired me to have you express an opinion as to whether a license is required or not."

Magistrate Crane looked the matter up and then said:

"The law says that licenses must be procured for circuses, theatrical and other entertainments, but does not say that it is necessary to procure one for wrestling matches. Therefore this court decides that Mr. Sulzer has not evaded the law by failing to procure a license."

"Will you put that in writing?" asked the Inspector.

"Why?" asked the Magistrate.
"That we can hand it down to others when you and I have gone," said Albertson.
"Oh, that's all right," replied Magistrate Crane. "When you and I have gone there will be others just as able and willing to render such a decision."

ROBBED OF $20,000 IN MID-OCEAN

Robert Neill, a Wealthy Californian, the Victim of a Mysterious Thief on the White Star Liner Germanic on the Voyage to
New York.

DAREN'T ACCUSE ANYONE.

Pilferer, Who Got His Fat Wallet in Stateroom, Finishes the Voyage with Him and Now Detectives Are on a Cold Trail —Ship's Officers Doubt.

On board the White Star liner Germanic when she reached her pier today there was a thief with $20,000 in drafts and cash belonging to Robert Neill, a resident of Los Angeles, Cal.
Mr. Neill stepped into New York penn-less. He had to borrow money from an expressman to pay $125 duty on some presents he brought from the other side, leaving his trunks as security until he can get money from home.

The big haul was made from Mr. Neill's stateroom last Wednesday, when the Germanic was in mid-ocean. He reported the robbery to the ship's officers, but there was nothing to be done in the way of detection. No passenger could be accused, no member of the crew could be accused because there was nothing upon which to base an accusation save the loss of the money.

Here was the predicament of Mr.
Neill. Robbed of $20,000 on board ship, he knew that the thief was within reaching distance; perhaps the person having his money passed him on the deck or at near him in the smoking room; perhaps some servant of the company ministered to him, directly or indirectly, knowing that he was left penniless a thousand miles from shore.

Problem for the Victim.

It was a weird experience for the victim. He was perfectly sure that the thief could not get away so long as the ship was on the ocean. And he was perfectly sure that the thief might walk down the gangplank alongside of him when the ship reached land and he would know nothing about it. The few persons to whom he spoke of his loss listened to him half incredulously, for it is a strange thing to be lifted from affluence to absolute poverty on board a ship out of sight of land and not know to whom the affluence has drifted.

Detective Mallon, the sleuth employed by the company, began an investigation as soon as the steamship landed and detective Moody and Leson, of the Central office, were also called in.

Proceeds of a Sale.

Mr. Neill has plenty of money left, but it is in Los Angeles. He came originally from Belfast, settled in California, prospered and became an American citizen. A few weeks ago he sailed to Ireland to sell property he owned there, and thence money stolen from him was what he got for the property.

"Last Wednesday morning," said Mr.
Neill, "I left my stateroom to take my morning bath, wearing nothing but a bathrobe. On my trunk I left a black leather pocketbook containing a draft for $2000 payable to order for $1,300 and 60 pounds in £100 English bank notes.

"I did not look for the pocketbook upon my return but dressed myself and went to breakfast. Not until after I had finished my meal did I find that I had been robbed. Of course I do not know whether the wallet was taken while I was at my bath or at breakfast,
while I was at my bath or at breakfast,
while I was at my bath or at breakfast.

"When I reported my loss to the pursers, I treated them as though I were out of my head. Absolutely no attention was paid to my complaint. The thought nothing was being done in the way of investigation was maddening. Not until I attempted to investigate my story was any attempt made to investigate my story."

From the way the Customs officials have been justified in believing that he was accused of stealing the money himself, Mr. Neill was very angry at the way the Customs House men treated him.
He had about five trunks and other important baggage. They were turned inside out and every coat or article of wearing apparel that had pockets in it was carefully examined. A parcel of the ship's purser G. H. Brewer and Capt. A. E.
Stoppard, the ship's doctor, the stateroom attendant, Mr. Neill heard of this.
Mr. Neill said: "No attention was paid to his complaint of robbery. They say that the thief was on board, but he was in the way of investigation was done, and went up by casting doubt upon the claim of their passenger that he lost his wallet."

Payment on the drafts has been stopped. The ship's officers are of the opinion in the wallet are non-negotiable. All the thief can realize is the $20 in five-pound notes.

(Special to The Evening World.) GRAVESEND, N. Y., June 12.—This afternoon at Gravesend will be remembered as one of the most remarkable of the year. Favorites were slaughtered.

The $50,000 champion Hermis, quoted at odds of 2 to 7 in the ring, was beaten by the despised three-year-old River Pirate, whose form has been remarkably bad up to date. But River Pirate had a lot of weight off from his previous races, though he and Hermis were meeting on even terms under the scale.

In the first race The Musketeer, a 1 to 3 chance, was badly beaten, Ascension, a 5 to 1 shot, coming home on the bit.

The Hanover Stakes saw Bath Beach, Nameoki and Green Crest heavily played choices, but the talent was staggered when Luminosity, a 50 to 1 chance, won easily from Latheron, a 40 to 1 shot. The winner, Luminosity, was entered to be sold for $1,500. Bill Daily bid $1,800, and as there was no one near to protect the filly she was knocked down to Daly.

Arthur Redfern was seen in the saddle again in this race. He rode Vagary with all his old-time dash and skill, but failed to get her in the money. Lindsay, who rode Luminosity, is the boy who made such a reputation at New Orleans last winter. He was all but killed in an accident, and Luminosity was his first mount.

FIRST RACE.

The Musketeer, 116, Fuller... 6 6 51 1-3 Bath Beach, 46, A. Brennan... 1 30 6 50 Damon, 107, O'Neill... 1 6 6 50 10 Start good. Won easily. Time—1:12.3-5.

The Musketeer, a prohibitive favorite, was badly beaten in this race. He had no speed and could not untrack himself, a speed and mud runner of high degree, went to the front soon after the start and made all the running. On the turn The Musketeer took second place, but in the last quarter he died away and was passed by Invasion and Braxton. Ascension won by two and a half lengths, while Invasion was a length and a half before Braxton.

SECOND RACE.

Five and a sixteenth.
Starters, whits, jocks. St. Hif. Fin. Betting.
River Pirate, 91, H. Calla 2 1 1/2 4-5 Hermis, 106, Rice... 1 2 28 2-7 Stamping Ground, 86... 1 2 28 2-7 McCarthy... 3 3 3 8-6
Start good. Won easily. Time—1:47 1-5.

River Pirate went to the front at once and took a two-length lead on Hermis. Stamping Ground was outrun all the way and was never a factor.
River Pirate did not let go of his advantage, and on the far turn, where Rice went to work on Hermis, the cry went up, "Hermis is beaten!" River Pirate held his lead to the end, winning by a scant length in a drive. Stamping Ground was third, twenty lengths away.

THIRD RACE.

Five and one-half furlongs.
Starters, whits, jocks. St. Hif. Fin. Betting.
Luminosity, 102, Lindsey... 5 7 1 1/2 50-1

Miss Nancy, 89, Cornell... 1 5 7 7-5 1-2
Start good. Won easily. Time—1:09 2-5.

Green Crest, Vagary and Bath Beach raced head and head to the turn, where Bath Beach showed in front. He led to the turn, followed by Vagary, Luminosity and Green Crest. In the run home the leaders died away, and Lumi-firm for $75,000, claiming he was admitted to partnership in January, 1899, and the sum named was his share of the profits

MAN WHO KILLED A KING AND QUEEN IS PROUD OF HIS WORK

Col. Maschin, Who Led the Army in the Work of Slaughter in the Royal Palace of Serbia, Boasts of the Deed in Describing the Part That He Took in the Killing.

INDIGNITIES ARE HEAPED ON THE BODIES OF THE SLAIN.

BERLIN, June 12.—An interview with Col. Maschin, who was the leader of the military party which burst into the palace at Belgrade Wednesday night, is published here. He is quoted as follows:

"There were a number of us. Whether it was I or another who fired the first shot is simply conjecture. The chief point for us is that our work was successful. We have rendered the fatherland a tremendous service and we are highly satisfied at our success.

"The first shot at M. Petrovitch was from the revolver of Capt. Ristics, who is a noted marksman. Petrovitch was hit in the forehead and fell dead instantly."

BELGRADE, June 12.—The bodies of King Alexander and Queen Draga have been ignominiously treated by their assassins. Unwashed and unshrouded, save with the bloody night garments in which they met death, they were buried in a pit dug in a public field.

From the convent chapel where the bodies were secreted throughout yesterday while the populace reviled them and held revel over their death, the murdered King and Queen were carried secretly in a covered wagon at 3 o'clock this morning to the suburb of Rakovica. The bodies of their murdered relatives and ministers followed.

The bodies of the royal pair were thrown on the turf while soldiers dug an immense pit, into which both bodies were cast.

The rain-soaked body of Lieut. Lunjevitzka, brother of the Queen, who fell fighting bravely in her defense, was then hurled in, and, to cap the ignominy, the bodies of their murdered relatives, Ministers and soldiers were piled in on top of them.

While the rain fell in torrents, the soldiers refilled the pit with earth and made a common grave over the nineteen victims. No attempt was made to mark the spot.

Col. Naumovics, the King's treacherous adjutant, was buried with military honors this afternoon.

Sensational stories are being published, the most revolting of them being that the soldiers outraged Queen Draga and mutilated the body of King Alexander and that those who were admitted to the palace yesterday to view the remains spat and stamped on them.

The backbones of both King Alexander and Queen Draga were broken, it is said, in consequence of the violence with which the murdered Sovereigns were thrown from the windows of the Palace.

Col. Naumovics, who was killed while forcing an entrance into the palace with dynamite, is described in the official notice of his death as "dying on the field of honor for his fatherland."

It is now confirmed that only Queen Draga's two brothers were killed. Her sisters were taken to Pance-ova by some of the conspirators.

HEAVY RAINS UP STATE CAUSE DAMAGE.

BRIDGES Carried Away by Swollen Streams, but Farmers Welcome the Downpour.

(Special to The Evening World.)
PORT JERVIS, N. Y., June 12.—Heavy rains have caused much damage in this vicinity. Two Erie tracks at Mill Hill, on the Delaware division, are washed out. Three tracks at Black Rock, on the New York division, are under water.
Highways are impassable and many small bridges have been carried away.
The rivers are swollen and near the danger line.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., June 12.—The rainfall continues and measures double the fall during two months drought. The temperature is low.

Reports from ten counties in this section of the State tell of the same downpour. The farmers feel encouraged and welcome the downpour.

NEW LONDON, Conn., June 12.—A heavy rain storm to-day, accompanied by wind of hurricane force, crippled the electric car service and wrecked many of the finest trees in the city, some of which crashed against residences.

Much damage was done to small craft in the harbor.

VIENNA, June 12.—The new Serbian Premier, M. Avakumovic, is quoted in a despatch from Belgrade as saying:

"I returned here yesterday from Alexinatz, where I was on professional legal business. I was at once summoned to the Ministry, where the other Ministers had assembled. They informed me that the deed was committed.
At their request I accepted the Premiership. The Cabinet meets to-day and will consider what steps shall next be taken. At present we are not in communication with Karageorgevitch, even if the army has proclaimed him King. His election as King is probable, however, as there is no other course open. It will remain for the Skupshina to elect him or not."

"The Government will not propose him, but will leave this task to the representatives of the people. We shall then resign. We do not fear any external interference, as there was none in the case of Bulgaria.

"Please state that peace prevails throughout the country and that it will continue. Whatever has happened now belongs to history. We should not judge the dead nor dwell on the past, but look to the future."

lery.
